

7th Annual Conference

Loving the Land Through Working Forests

Saturday, May 19, 2018

In-the-Field Forestry Program

Located near 9201 South Creek Rd. Girard, Erie County, PA

Visit foundationforsustainableforests.org/events for Directions

- 7:30am Registration Begins
- 8:15am Opening Address
- 9am Morning Sessions begin
- 12pm Lunch (provided)
- 1:30pm Afternoon Session begins
- 4pm Program Wrap-Up

Program

Most sessions below are offered concurrently morning & afternoon

Opening Address by Jason Rutledge, Co-Founder, Healing Harvest Foundation

Sustainable Forestry for Ecosystem Resilience • Troy Firth, FSF President & Founder

Women & Working Forests • Amanda Mahaffey (Forest Stewards Guild), Allyson Muth (Center for Private Forests), Cecile Stelter (DCNR Bureau of Forestry)

Restorative Forestry & Modern Horse Logging • Jason Rutledge, Healing Harvest Foundation

Legacy Planning for the Woodland Owner • Thomas C. Hoffman, II, Knox Law Institute

Practical Ways to Support Wildlife on Your Land • Josh VanBrakle, Author

Children's Programming • Diane Esser, I Am a Planet Kid

Pre-registration is required, $15/person, free to FSF, PFA members and children

Lloyd Casey Memorial Fund

Craig & Monica Schwegman

Northwest PA Woodland Association

Kathy and Emil Spadafore

EVENT REGISTRATION

Loving the Land Through Working Forests • May 19, 2018

Name(s): _____

Mailing Address: _____

E-mail or Phone: _____

_____ # Children under 14 (free)

_____ # Adults (x $15) (free for FSF or PFA members)

Send this form with payment to:

Foundation for Sustainable Forests
22418 Firth Road
Spartansburg, PA 16434

Or register online via PayPal

Visit foundationforsustainableforests.org or call (814) 694-5830
for more information